The world has gone on for centuries
And for centuries it will last.
But only if the field of art will be
A thing of the future as well as the past.
For high upon a hill so noble
Challenging the eye,
Stands one of art's helpers, willing and able.
In the halls of West Linn High.
Her name is Mrs. Martin.
She works so hard all day
On projects people bring in
To her room 11A.
For six years she has taught
To make her students wiser.
We owe her thanks for our yearbook
Because she's the staff advisor.
But besides being a teacher
And yelling like some teachers do,
She has patience and a sense of humor.
She's rather pretty too.
Mrs. Martin we want to thank you
By the best thing we can do,
Because you've been a help to us
We dedicate this book to you.

TWINS HOLD REINS OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

---To make the role of your student council an effective one, we have attempted to provide you with an awareness of and opportunities for participation in its activities as well as in the other aspects of your school life. On behalf of the student body officers and the student council, I express my sincere appreciation to all of you for your efforts toward achieving that end.

Sincerely,

OUR FOREIGN EXCHANGE PROGRAM--

The opening of the 1967 school year brought the West Linn Student Body a new and fascinating friend in Jorge Eduardo Levi Mattoso. Jorge comes to us from Porto Alegre, Brazil where he lives with his parents and a thirteen-year-old brother. His warm, out-going personality enabled him to blend into our school life with ease. Dr. and Mrs. A.M. Bergman, his American parents, report their new "son" a welcome addition to their family. Jorge is an active participant in this year's senior class and a true asset to the school. Although Jorge is returning to Porto Alegre in June, the friendship and understanding experienced this year will not be erased by time. Jorge expresses this sentiment in the following passage:

"When somebody comes to a strange country, it is like a new world is open to him, and the first feelings are fear and apprehension. But after a few days with the "American family" and with all of you from West Linn, the scared feeling turns into friendship and the apprehension into security. Because of the things that you did each day, because of the friends I found here, and because of each one of you, I'm trying to find the exact words to say that I'm very sorry that the year is coming to an end."

Thank you very much,

Mr. and Mrs. Jose Carlos Mattoso, Jorge, and brother Carlos Alberto.

AN EXPERIMENT IN BROTHERHOOD

To be a foreign exchange student is an honor to dream about in grade school and hope for in high school. If it finally comes your way, it brings with it a whole new world of people, places, and customs. To me it brought Peru with its Inca relics, its poverty, and its rustic beauty. It brought twelve new brothers and sisters and two wonderful parents. A myriad of new customs came my way, from no dating to parties which regularly lasted until four o'clock in the morning.

With the people, places, and customs came responsibility -- the responsibility of being an ambassador to a foreign country. Each year the American Field Service sends over 1200 teenage ambassadors to all parts of the world. Each has the unique experience of sharing and exchanging ideas with his adopted family. It is an unparalleled adventure which will live in our hearts for a long time to come.

combine for varsity unity.

With the nearing of the '66 '67 school year, pre season football practice roared into full swing. Thirty five unconditioned football players groped and complained about daily doubles and wondered why they had ever turned out to this queuing sport. But by the time school started the boys were ready to tackle their first big clash which was with Oregon City. The LIONS rushed into the game with spirit and vigor. However the Pioneers of O.C. proved to be just a bit tougher or maybe luckier and they walked away with the spoils of victory. Now the LIONS would have to work just a little bit harder to reach the top and stay there. The next seven games moved down victory road but the last and final game was to encounter and obstacle. To gain a position in the state playoffs we would have to conquer Lake Oswego. It would not be an easy job and our boys knew it. This is where the boy's coolness, the anger, and the sweat and pain would count. The potential they had gained would also help but most of all they needed team unity. The first half of the Lake Oswego game was almost unbearable. The LIONS offensive was strong and tough and the defensive line continued to back the Lakers. The boys were almost at the peak of their long climb to victory and only another 24-minute half would put them on top. During the second half, the tides turned. The drive that Lake Oswego had lacked during the first half was steadily thrust forward in the second. The Lakers denied our LIONS stealing from us all hopes of state. A sad despairing team dragged off the field that night, dismayed at what had taken place.

Even though the LIONS did not make it to the State playoffs, their combined efforts were not in vain. From them emerged some of the finest football players in the league. Three of these were Clark Hoss, Rick Faddis and Craig Porter, each of which was awarded positions on the TYV League All-Star Team. Bob Moravec, Doug Tunnell, and Bud Lynch missed similar honors by one vote each. Senior, Clark Hoss was selected to be on the Shriners All-Star Football Team, a team chosen from all outstanding players throughout the state of Oregon. Senior, Bud Lynch, an outstanding player, was presented the "Inspirational Award".

The LIONS were not lacking in spirit and potential this year. They were a mighty team and one of which we can be proud.

ROUZE 'EM,

SOUZE 'EM, W.L.H.

For some 30 plus football years, the Mac-High Grizzlies had out-scored the West Linn Lions, not necessarily out-played them just out-scored them. Many were the times when the defeated Lions came home wishing they had never left. When the Mac game rolled around this year, there was a new kind of excitement in the air; one of great expectations and bold confidence. It was unlike any other year and you could feel the tenseness and anticipation of the team. The pep assembly that day unleashed the first burst of student body spirit and unity. The Rally Squad presented the entire team with musical horns, urging them to "outplay the Grizzlies." At the game that night, the spirit was overwhelming. When our boys ran onto the field, you could sense their readiness and eagerness. A high goal had been set and they strived to achieve it. The unity which was displayed throughout the game represented their strong determination to win. They knew they must win and that night our mighty LIONS brought home the victory that had been sought for over 30 years.

AND WE DID!

The fall air snapped with electrical excitement as the Lions clashed with the Oregon City Pioneers in the first game of the season. Although the Pioneers were victorious, the Lions did not let their defeat set the pace for the remainder of the season. Seven straight wins led to anticipation of a berth at the State Tournament. The deciding game to be played with Lake Oswego. Sad but wiser players beaten by the Lake Oswego Lakers, were resigned to a second place tie with them.

Sixteen graduating seniors well seasoned by the triumph of winning and heart break of defeat, will be sorely missed. They have led the way in spirit, determination and honor, leaving a high goal for those returning.

FROSH FOOTBALL

It takes plenty of courage to go out for Frosh Football and our Freshmen boys were not lacking in it. They rushed into the new school year with vigor and vitality. Their first clash resulted in defeat but this did not dampen their spirits and the enthusiasm generated by team drive gave them a determination to win. Such the fates would not allow and the season ended with 2 wins, 2 ties and 3 losses. Having great potential, the future holds high goals for these promising Freshmen.

With the arrival of the new '66-'67 school year, the thoughts of the freshmen were turned toward orientation. But lurking around the corner were diabolical upper-classmen whose thoughts were fully concentrated on initiation. Little did the Freshmen know of the evils which were about to overtake them.

The bagrush at West Linn had been contrived as an initiation stunt for Freshmen. The Frosh and Sophomores would battle it out atop a wooden horse trying to knock each other off. If the Frosh didn't knock off enough Sophomores, they would shine shoes for a week.

Bagrush day presented a score fearless Frosh ready to tackle the rough, tough Sophomores. But the majority of victories fell to the Sophomores and all at once 300 panic-stricken Freshmen took off across the football field with the upper-classmen hot on their tails. Needless to say, the Frosh were apprehended and the shiniest tennis shoes during the following week belonged to the upper-classmen.

HOMECOMING 1966-67

Royalty Reigns Supreme throughout Football Homecoming

Homecoming celebrations began with the presentation of the Court before the Student Body. Excitement and anticipation of the forthcoming game and dance raced through the crowd. That evening, torrential rains prevented the traditional Royal Motorcade; nevertheless, spirits swelled high when the Lions trampled Forest Grove 38-0. At the dance, the Rising Sons entertained the Court and their subjects. Wild rhythms pulsating through every dancer brought a climax to the 1966-67 Homecoming -- one that will be long remembered.

CROSS COUNTRY

Although the Lions' Cross Country team did not have an outstanding season this year, they gained valuable experience that will be an asset in coming seasons. Coach Adams was pleased by this year's large turn-out and since most of the team will be returning next year, he is looking forward to a more successful season.

Senior runner Jim Stewart brought honor to the Lions by placing fourth in the District meet. This entitled Jim to go to the State meet in which he placed 47th out of 176, the highest placement of any runner from the TYV League.

Our swimming team, so tried and true took on swirling waters rich and blue

the effort was there, so was the heart
we soared to the top of the proverbial chart

here and there, tho, we had our tough meetings and must admit to a few aquatic beatings

we may not have been the league's big flash
but we led in hustle to the last splash

Thank you for a job sincerely done in our opinion, you always won.

— Dick Braghers

The girls swim team under the guidance of coach Ellen Martin and Elaine Mackey gained much experience this season although they won two matches and close scores were made.

Captain Susie Haatvedt and Co-Captain
Maureen McLellan sparked the team through many long hours of rigorous workouts and nerve shattering meets.

Maureen McLellan brought honors to the team when she qualified in district finals in the butterfly which entitled her to go to state swim meet in Eugene.

Events in which the girls competed included:
medley relay, 200 freestyle, 50 breast stroke,
50 freestyle, 50 butterfly, 100 backstroke,
100 freestyle, 100 breast stroke, 100 butter-

THROUGHOUT SEASON

Diligent practice leads to State Meet.

POLITICAL CAMPAIGNING COMES TO WEST LINN

In October, politics came to life as candidates from both parties spoke to our student body. Heading the long roster of speakers was Governor Mark Hatfield, Republican candidate for U.S. Senator and Robert Straub, Democratic candidate for the governorship.

Oregonians stirred the autumn air with talk of the approaching state and senatorial elections. Our student body, knowledgeable of and concerned with the issues involved in the 1966 elections, became an attentive audience to the candidates' views and asked many thought-provoking questions.

The students and faculty made preparations well in advance for the guest speakers. Bonners were raised and welcoming parties were formed consisting of student body officers and school officials. The warm, friendly atmosphere of West Linn High brought overwhelming praise from those who visited during the two week period.

The war in Viet Nam, taxation, pollution, and the eighteen-year voting age were among the key issues presented for discussion. Inquisitive students, who challenged the politicians, were given excellent answers concerning their views on current state and national topics.

Governor Mark Hatfield and State Treasurer Robert Straub delivered their vibrant speeches during two all-student assemblies. Speaking before Socio-Economics, American Problems, and U.S. History classes were Malcolm Cross, John Inskeep, Beulah Hand, Elmer McClure, and Roger Martin.

In "The Crucible", Arthur Miller focuses most of the attention on the fate of a young farmer's wife, accused of witchcraft -- and the doom her husband also meets when he attempts to extricate his wife from the unfounded charges before the prejudiced authorities.

Gary Krinke was seen as the young farmer with his stubborn search for justice in a time of fear, and Ann Serell enacted the role of his rigidly upright wife. Bob Welsh appeared as the smug, over-bearing deputy-governor of the colony who presided over the trial. Al Taylor portrayed a minister who became appalled at the hysteria that overwhelms the colonial village, and Dwight Woodruff appeared as another minister who, panic stricken, whips up the orgy of bigotry to save his own position.

Others in the large cast include; Lorraine Seeley as the malevolent wanton whose lies launch all the hideous persecutions, and the other girls who escaped persecution for having dared to dance by night in a forest by casting suspicion on innocent villagers were played by, Nancy Fowler, Ann Kehrl, Leslie Wold, and Patti Walt. Others in the cast include; Larry Lehman, Shelia Johnson, Sharan Splinter, Paul Reitz, Jim Murray, John Steele, David Greger, Emily Reitz, Gary Bauer, Colleen Paepke, and Rose Endres. "The Crucible" was directed by Ted Desel.

"Proctor, the village must have proof that . . . ."

"He have h's goodness now!"

"Beth's yours, Mary Warren?"

"I would have your forgiveness!"

"I told you to never leave this house!"

CANDY CANE LANE

December twenty third was bubbling with merriment. Students and teachers alike joined in the excitement of the Yuletide Season. With everyone contributing their time and talents, all the classroom doors, displayed in artwork, the spirit of Christmas. A beautiful tree decorated by the Student Council brightened the halls while thousands of cans were being collected for the Annual Canned Food Drive. At 3:17, when the school became vacant for Christmas vacation, the Seniors braved the frosty winter air to gather holly for the Christmas Ball.

With last minute preparations completed, the doors to "Candy Cane Lane" opened to the enchanted atmosphere created by a ceiling of flowing satin and clouds filled with colorful, swirling lights. Glittering statues looked on as the "Rhythm Makers" from Lewis and Clark College enriched the evening with sparkling music. Student Body President Rick Farleigh crowned Patti Hopp the 1966 Miss Merry Christmas. Through the sincere efforts of the Senior Class advisors, Mrs. Betty Conon and Mr. Ronald Wyffels, and the Christmas Ball Committees under the outstanding leadership of Betty Hall, "Candy Cane Lane" will always be a cherished memory.

BY HEIGHT AND SPEED . . .

Hoping for a coveted tournament berth, the Lions played their hardest throughout the season. They flew past most opponents with ease but found the Lakers of Lake Oswego and the Pioneers of Oregon City tough to beat. Although, as in the words of Athletic Director Mr. Sam Nixon, "Lady Luck was not with us" we finished with a fine record of fourteen wins, four losses.

In a special award assembly "Uncle Dan" Reins expressed his sincere feelings for his courageous, determined, and aggressive team.

Court of the Round Table

A medieval air prevailed at this year's basketball homecoming dance. The upper balcony was decorated with colorful shields and flags to resemble an old manor hall. The Queen and King were selected in the traditional manner. The annual staff, sponsors of the dance, sold Tootsie Pops entitling the purchaser to one vote per pop for their choice for Queen and King. The senior prince and princess, lovely Jill Casada and Jorge Mattoso, were selected this year's sovereigns.

Queen Jill was crowned with a beautiful tiara of flowers by Student Body President Rick Farliegh. Patti Hopp, Annual editor, presented King Jorge with a rosebud boutonniere. With the beginning strains of the dance, the King and Queen and their court, Juniors Eddi Dierickx and Becky Gross, Sophomores Rick Rollins and Jo Anno Dobson and Freshman Pete Kincart and Patty Wilson, led the way to the dance floor. Official court minstrels for the affair were the Stags. The evening's festivities were made all the more enjoyable by West Linn's victory over Newberg in basketball.

PIN! PIN! PIN! These words came from the loyal wrestling crowd as our matmen had a very exciting and entertaining season. Win or lose there was always action and each wrestler put forth his utmost energies. The team, or the often referred to as "grunt and groaners" conditioned and dieted many long hours in order to achieve the individual as well as team eminence that they did. Besides wrestling the league dual matches our LIONS entered and invitational meet at North Eugene High, where they met against Churchill, Eugene, and Corvallis. Final standings placed us in third place, but only five points behind second place Eugene. At the district meet held at Newberg High our wrestling team had two full days of tough competition. We finished in fifth place with three men eligible for the state meet.

These three grapplers, Jim Darcy, Bob Low, and Bud Lynch advanced to the State Tournament by qualifying in their individual weight brackets at the District Tournament. Jim and Bob won Championships in their weights of 141 and 148. Bud went with a second at 157. At State, Bud Lynch succeeded in wrestling into finals and came home with a second place position.

LIONS CHOOSE STUDENT LEADERS

A difficult decision for the West Linn Student Body this year was the selection of Student Body Officers for 1967-68. Fourteen able candidates were given two weeks to prepare for a hectic but rewarding campaign day. On February 1st at a student body meeting, nominations made by the Student Council nominating committee were announced and the candidates were introduced to the student body. Nominations from the floor were also taken.

The next step was a meeting of candidates and their campaign managers with the Student Body Officers. At this meeting those seeking office were informed about campaign procedures, petitions, the constitution test, and poster and speech regulations.

With all these rules in mind, each candidate began work on a promotion to put his name and ideas before the voters. Long hours of creative thinking and careful art work were spent in preparation for the big day.

When the long awaited day finally arrived, the halls were filled with crowds of campaigners waving signs, shouting, and stuffing candy into the hands of prospective voters. The first test of skill came for the candidates during a mock student body meeting held for the purpose of demonstrating ability in parliamentary procedure. Each presidential candidate was given the opportunity to lead the meeting for five minutes while the secretarial candidates proved their skill at taking accurate and concise minutes.

Throughout these activities, attention had been focused upon the event still to come: the making of campaign speeches. As a climax to an exciting day, students crowded into the auditorium to listen to the views and become familiar with the personalities of the speakers. Each candidate used his time well and the decision was very difficult.

When the voting was completed and the results announced, all shared the joy of those who had been chosen. The entire student body heartily congratulated Eddie Dierickx, who was chosen Student Body President, Fred Lenzer, Vice President, Gloria Lohman, Secretary, and Marilyn Carter, Assistant Treasurer.

VARSITY BASEBALL

At the start of this year's season, Coach Bill Lee's Varsity Baseball team showed promise for success. The Lions were fortunate to have one of the best double play combinations in the league, with Roger Fetz on second base and Rich Hefferon at shortstop. Senior Rick Faddis, with the highest batting average on the team, was unanimously elected to the TYV League All Star Team. Pitcher Larry Parsons, a junior, was elected to the league's second team and junior Ed Dierickx received honorable mention.

In spite of a capable and experienced team, the Lions met with tough competition and finished the season with a 6 wins-8 losses record. But with the loss of only three graduating seniors, next year's baseball team will have a full force of skillful ballplayers.

Ten thousand eyes were on him as he rubbed his hands with dirt,
Five thousand tongues applauded when he wiped them on his shirt;
Then while the writhing pitcher ground the ball into his hip,
Defiance gleamed in Casey's eye, a sneer curled Casey's lip.

And now the leather-covered sphere came hurtling through the air,
And Casey stood a-watching it in haughty grandeur there;
Close by the sturdy batsman the ball unheeded sped.
"That ain't my style," said Casey. "Strike one," the umpire said.

From the benches, block with people, there went up a muffled roar,
Like the beating of the storm-waves on a stern and distant shore;
"Kill him! Kill the umpire!" shouted someone on the stand.
And it's likely they'd have killed him had not Casey raised his hand.

With a smile of Christian charity great Casey's visage shone;
He stilled the rising tumult; he bade the game go on;
He signaled to the pitcher, and once more the spheroid flew,
But Casey still ignored it, and the umpire said, "Strike two."

"Fraud!" cried the maddened thousands, and the echo answered, "Fraud,"
But a scornful look from Casey, and the audience was awed;
They saw his face grow stern and cold, they saw his muscles strain,
And they knew that Casey wouldn't let that ball go by again.

The sneer is gone from Casey's lips, his teeth are clenched in hate,
He pounds with cruel violence his bat upon the plate;
And now the pitcher holds the ball, and now he lets it go
And now the air is shattered by the force of Casey's blow.

Oh, somewhere in this favored land the sun is shining bright,
The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light;
And somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout,
But there is no joy in Mudville -- mighty Casey has struck out.

Casey at the Bat

GOLF

The West Linn Golf Team "putted" a successful season this year. WL, finishing fifth in league, qualified for the state tournament where they placed 38th out of 49 teams. The entire team will be back next year with the exception of Brian Katz who is a graduating Senior.

"A special bouquet for the only West Linn team going to State!"

MYSTIC TEMPLE GARDENS.

It all began on a warm summer night in May. The time eight. Couples dressed in chic evening attire ascended the stairs to the Mystic Temple Gardens in the Portland State Ballroom where they were caught up in a spell of elegant romance. Throughout the Japanese gardens, cherry trees with delicate pink blossoms grew. A small wooden bridge donned with more blossoms crossed a small stream and lead out to the balcony where the cool night waited. On the sidewalk below a small amateur band with instruments like a washboard, a Spanish guitar, a wash tub bass, and a can of money to pound out the beat, added a touch of fascination to the night.

As Teddy Moore and his orchestra, played the last song for the night everyone began leaving for their dinner engagements that would give the evening a crowning touch.

The sophomore class of 1967 began the year on the right foot by triumphing over the freshmen in the bag-rush, earning the distinction of being undefeated in our two years of competition. The bag-rush was followed by a successful sophomore-sponsored football homecoming dance and the one-act play later in the year. As juniors we plan to exert ourselves whole-heartedly to have an even better year.

CHEERLEADERS BOOST

Enthusiastic is the word to describe this year's cheerleaders. Both the Junior Varsity and Varsity Squads can be praised for their never-failing spirit. Many were the times when the difference between victory and defeat was placed in the hands of the nine girls, who automatically turned the bleachers and grandstands into a mass of screaming spectators. Occasionally, the squads were plagued by some illness or injury - Peg's sprained back, Sue's black eye, Sandy's broken toe, Debbie's tonsils, and Tama's terrible cold; still they yelled their loudest the entire year. "I loved yelling for the Lions because I could yell as loud as I wanted without people telling me to shut up." Sue's comment is expressive of the school's spirit.

FORENSICS

Forensics have accomplished their ultimate goal of filling our trophy case. Not only have they entered more tournaments than ever before, but they have also had more finalists. They placed second in the TYV League Speech Meet, second in the District for the Oregon High School Speech League, and second in the National Forensic's League for Oregon. Also, for the third year in a row, West Linn's Forensics have qualified a person for national competition. This year Gloria Lohman received the honor.

Four blond beauties presided over the Forensic's Annual "Bash". Pretty Debbie Zimmerman was crowned queen. Other members of her court were Princess Pam Smith, A Senior; Princess Sue Hopwood, a Junior; and Princess Mary Goodwin, a Freshman.
